Excellent Recital By Pupils of Miss Violet Hyde

A very enjoyable and happily arranged recital by the pupils of Miss Violet Hyde was held at her home on Saturday night last. The large number of pupils acquitted themselves most ably reflecting credit on the painstaking care of their teacher, and on their own perseverance in practising. Several of the pupils showed marked ability and all showed much progress since last year's recital.

Mr. Crowther was chairman. The following program was rendered by Strathmore pupils.

1. Duet—March of the Brownies by Doreen Issard and Douglas MacKenzie
2. Pierrot and Home on the Range by Imogene Thompson.
3. Sleigh Ride and Long Ago by Donna Anderson.
4. Winding Flowers and Minuet in F by Margaret Paterson.
5. John Peel and Tumbling Clown by Kenny MacKenzie.
6. Annie Laurie and Auld Lang Syne by Ellen Bennett.
7. Bobolink and Beautiful Dreamer by Doreen Issard.
8. La Donne and Joy Ride by Rachel Jisseux.
9. Duet—Minuet in G by Violet Luggs and Ellen Bennett.
10. Pop Goes the Weasel and Lander and Lace by Helen Gray.
11. The Swallow and Waltz in A flat by Gladys Cormack.
12. The Broomstick Parade and Taps by Ronnie Crowther.
13. St. Cecilia and Moonlight on the St. Lawrence by Douglas MacKenzie.
14. Moonwinks and An Autumn Evening by Audrey Thompson.
15. The Things We Love and Falling Waters by Joyce Woodliffe.
16. Toccato and Sailor Dance by John Thompson.
17. Waltz Mignonne and Narcissus by Violet Luggs.
18. Song by June Payne.
19. (b) Merry Peasant and Jolly Roger by Raymond Payne.
20. Presentation of Certificates.
21. Introduction of Cluny pupils by Violet Hyde.

During an interval, certificates were presented as follows, Barbara Haymond, of Cluny, Grade IV Theory, of the R. A. M. with 1st. Class honors. Douglas MacKenzie, Grade IV Piano T. C. M. with honors. Helen Beattie, Cluny Grade IV Theory 1st. Class honors R. A. M. Violet Luggs, Grade I Theory 1st. Class honors T. C. M. Ronnie Crowther Grade 2, Piano with honors T. C. M.

Miss Hyde then introduced three of her pupils from Cluny explaining that they had made their own selection for the recital. She would like to have brought her entire class but that was impossible.

These young girls, pupils in Grade IX and grade XII at Cluny, are exceptionally clever young pianists, holding the audience enthralled. It is exceptional that three young girls possessing such marked ability, appear on one program in a small town entertainment and warm congratulations are extended to them as well as their teacher.

- Their selections were;
11. Woodland Echoes by Barbara Haymond.
  2. Duet—Mr. Ming by Jean Fairbourn and Doris Cunningham.
  3. Minuet (Paderewski) by Doris Cunningham.

4. Robin's Return by Jean Fairbourn
5. Les Muscadins by Barbara Haymond.
6. Duet—Nola by Jean Fairbourn and Doris Cunningham.
7. Witch's Flight by Jean Fairbourn.
8. Salut a Pesth by Doris Cunningham.

At the conclusion of this part of the program little Donna Anderson presented to Miss Hyde, on behalf of the pupils, a very lovely bouquet of crimson roses and fern for which Violet expressed her appreciation.

Mr. Crowther then on behalf of the parents presented Violet with a pretty silver ring expressing the appreciation of the parents for her interest in her pupils and the regret all feel at her leaving to join the R. C. A. F. Wireless. A card bearing the names of the pupils and the parents artistically printed by W. S. Paterson was given with the ring.

Violet was quite overcome and could only say the one word "Thank you" which affords is sufficient.

Mrs. Hyde then served an abundance of delicious refreshments and a Tappy social hour was enjoyed before the guests took their several ways homeward.

Present— D. J. McKinnon, D. N. Gardiner, G. W. Johnson, J. W. Anderson, W. White, A. Larsen, G. Boyack, E. Cammaert, J. M. Wheatley, C. H. Cowell, J. Harwood, J. A. McArthur, W. E. Thompson, and P. M. Sauder, Director of Water Resources, Edmonton, Alberta.

W. E. Thompson was appointed Secretary and D. J. McKinnon was appointed to continue as chairman.

Mr. McKinnon then advised that the Committee's report and all correspondence in this connection was published in the Strathmore Standard of this date. He also advised that Mr. Sauder who was present, was making a survey of the Irrigation System and would report on same and discuss the feasibility of the water users taking over the entire system.

All members of this Committee had not received this paper and Mr. Wheatley read the Committee's Report and also the last letter from the Hon. D. B. MacMillan, Minister in charge, which read, in part:

"I suggest that the representative of those interested in the operation of 'A', 'B' and 'C' systems get together and figure out just what services they want this year."

—IMPORTANT NOTICE—

Anyone desiring delivery of water in 1943 from the said "A", "B" and "C" Systems can obtain water by making arrangements with the Company.

Mr. P. M. Sauder, Director of Water Resources, Edmonton, then advised, That his survey of the Western Irrigation System was not complete and he was unable to give facts and figures for publication at this time as to the cost of this system by a water users organization.

He further advised that—Some 20,000 acres of arable land might be secured for water rates plus 2,000 quarter sections for stock watering through spilling water into definite channels.

Amendments to the Irrigation Act would be necessary to meet the stock watering proposal.

As to the inauguration of an Irrigation District—

A petition supported by 50% of land owner water contract holders of proposed district would be necessary and a two thirds vote in favor of setting up a district when vote was taken, purchasers of land also voting.

It was moved by McArthur and Cammaert—That we request a meeting with the Manager and Trustees of the Western Irrigation District and that this entire Committee meet the said Manager and Trustees at their pleasure for the purpose of securing information in connection with the E. I. D. inauguration and operation.

On motion of Cammaert and Harwood it was agreed that we call meetings of Water Contract Holders at 8 p.m. May 31st, 1943, at Strathmore and 8 p.m. June 1st, 1943, at Meadowbrook Community Hall, north of Gleichen.

It was agreed on motion of Wheatley and Boyack, that the agenda for the Water Contract Holders' Meeting be placed in the hands of our Chairman and Secretary for preparation.

On motion of Harwood and Wheatley it was decided, that our Chairman and Secretary make arrangements for a general meeting for all those interested in the use of irrigation water.

Mr. McKinnon then moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Sauder for being here with us to-night.

The Secretary was authorized to write Hon. George Spence, Director of Rehabilitation, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Regina, Sask., immediately and request him to attend a meeting at Strathmore on 10th, or 11th, of June and speak and give information on water supplies and irrigation.

It was moved by Cammaert that we adjourn.

W. E. Thompson,
Secretary.

LOCAL DRUGGISTS, FARMERS AND RANCHERS HEAR DR. TALBOT

The Druggists of Strathmore, Gleichen, Bassano, and Rockyford sponsored a meeting in the Legion Hall, Strathmore on Thursday evening May 13th. Farmers and Ranchers from the surrounding districts were invited to attend, to hear Dr. Talbot. Provincial Veterinarian speak on the subject "The Prevention of Diseases in Live Stock."

This was a similar meeting to many now being held throughout the province through the co-operation of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association.

Notes on production set by the Dominion Government in support of the War effort must be met if this War is to be won and in order to do this losses in our Live Stock population must be kept to a very minimum.

Dr. Talbot's address dealt with this serious problem. He gave many practical suggestions not only on the care and feeding of Live Stock, but especially on modern methods of Treatment in the Prevention of Diseases.

The meeting was made more interesting by the use of Motion Pictures showing the Symptoms of Diseases and the Manufacture of the various Biological Products now available to the Stock Raiser to protect his stock.

This latter part of the programme was under the direction of V. E. Hessel, Registrar of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association.

A very interesting feature of the meeting was the round table discussion which took place at the close of the programme, the Farmers and Ranchers present took full advantage of this feature and asked many questions of grave importance in solving the present problem.

THE 'OUT-SIDE'

● EMBARKATION LEAVE

He's home on embarkation leave, And terror clutches at her heart, She jokes and laughs and bakes him pies, Determined she will do her part. This last leave must be bright and gay Across these days no shadows fall, What though she restless toss at night If sound he sleeps across the hall?

Courage she'll show as well as he Tomorrow when he must depart; No tears to sadden and depress, Though with him goes her aching heart.

She'll make small talk of this and that Fuss with his clothes and help him pack,

With ever in her soul the prayer—"God keep him safe and bring him back."

—Kathleen Openshaw.

● MIRROR OF WORLD OPINION—

'I Do Not Recognize Any Enemy'

I do not recognize any enemy which is human, for no human being can be my enemy. Whoever he is, whatever color he is, however mistaken he may be in what he believes, he is my friend, not my enemy, for he is no different from myself. My quarrel is not with him, but with that in him which I seek to destroy in myself first.—A letter from Marcus in "The Human Comedy" by William Saroyan.

● Printer's Pitfall—

College paper bans jokes Student editors of the Gateway, undergraduate newspaper of the University of Alberta, ran into grief recently over a special edition handled by students of one faculty, for the page of jokes carried offense. The responsible editors were censured. It was explained that the offending jokes had been blueprinted in the galley proofs but none of the special editors followed through to see that the type was killed under which the student humor section has been carried for over 25 years. Outcome: that the Caserello name has been deleted entirely from the paper. Ructions also echoed in Montreal, where it is alleged one of the faculty groups doing a similar issue "lifted" the offending jokes; result temporary suspension of McGill Daily.

● The Jews of Canada are urging that a number of Jewish refugees, especially children, who may find it possible to flee from Nazi Europe be given asylum in this country for the duration.

This request was made by the Canadian Jewish Congress in Montreal in a Three-Point Program which outlined ways and means for this country to help some of the threatened and persecuted Jews of Europe.

● Central Alberta Dairy Pool Expands

The Central Alberta Dairy Pool has purchased from Burns and Company their Ponoka and Stettler creameries, the Red Deer Advocate reports. A few weeks ago the dairy pool purchased the Delburne and Elhara creameries and before that had operated creameries at Alix, Bowden, Bentley and Red Deer. The combine butter output of the eight creameries is approximately five million pounds and another one million pounds of butter fat is used by the condenser at Red Deer. The Central Alberta Dairy Pool is one of the largest butter producers in the whole province. It has a membership of six thousand.

CANADIAN EDITORS OVERSEAS

—By Walter R. Legge—

LONDON IN WARTIME

We arrived in London late in the evening after an all-day train journey. There was no moon that night. London in the black-out is really black.

There were army automobiles to meet us and we had a sudden and complete introduction to being driven through the blackness at what seemed to be about thirty miles an hour, and on the wrong side of the street.

Our car narrowly missed a pedestrian who was courting death by dodging across the street in the middle of a block. If he had been hit it looked to us as if he would have been entirely at fault, but our guide said that in such a case the chauffeur would be "Joe", which in army parlance is the fellow who gets all the blame.

London in the daytime is just as strange to us. On the streets are men and women in uniform from all parts of the world, "S" signs on nearly corner pointing the way to shelters, other signs where there are tanks of static water, shelters built in the streets, closed stores, store windows boarded over except for small lights of glass, and if there were anything else needed to show that we are in the war zone, we could look up and see the countless balloons in the sky.

The barrage balloons, which look something like huge fish, are a silver colour that blends with the sky, so that they are hard to see at any distance, but in spite of that, one could often count forty or more.

The static water is for use in fighting fires in case the water mains are destroyed or are inadequate. In many cases the basements of buildings that have been demolished are cleaned out, cemented, and filled with water.

The number of stores that are closed is astonishing. Most store windows have been broken by concussion even when the buildings have not been hit, and there would not be enough glass to replace them even if it were safe to do so. Therefore the windows have been closed up, leaving only small panes of glass three or four feet square in the centre.

The acute shortage of labour is apparent in many things, as for instance in the elevator service, or "lifts" as they are known there. People are expected always to walk downstairs, no matter how many stories, and to wait up if not more than three stories.

No one is supposed to have more than one bath a week, and then to have only five inches or less of water in the tub. The hotels give a fast service for laundry, and one must allow several days before expecting its return.

Debris from bomb damage has been well cleaned up, but little or no attempt has been made to rebuild. Plans for a finer and more beautiful London still exist only on paper.

Transportation is much better than we expected. Taxicabs are under severe restrictions as to gas and speed, but it is possible to get one when required, with a little delay. The principal method of travel in London is to take the underground or a bus, and there are plenty of the latter. They are of the double deck type. People queue up for them in a very orderly manner which is a tremendous improvement over the crowded confusion found around the entrance to a street car in Canada.

The London subway system is said to be the finest in the world, and it probably is. Most of the subways are to take the underground or a bus, and there are plenty of the latter. They are of the double deck type. People queue up for them in a very orderly manner which is a tremendous improvement over the crowded confusion found around the entrance to a street car in Canada.

The number of stores that are closed actually saw some of them.

There are many things in London that are the same as over. The pigs haven't left Trafalgar Square, although there may not be quite so many. It is a mystery what they live on, as people are not supposed to give them any food.

And the orators still hold forth in Hyde Park. Our hotel was just across the street from that part of the park where Free Speech is enjoyed or abused, according to your viewpoint. Here the soap box speakers can say anything they wish without fear of prosecution. There are not so many listeners now, but on the Sunday that we went over to hear the orators there was a fair sized crowd. It is excellent free entertainment, as there always are a number holding forth on all kinds of subjects. One of the most popular just now is "Monolulu" who waves a number of flags in the air, and talks about what the negroes have done to help the world. He wears a colorful costume to add to the show. Later, when we queried a Cabinet Minister about these orators, some of whom appear to preach almost treason, he declared that "Every building needs a good ventilating system."

These, as still providing good shows, but on account of the black-out the curtains go up at about half-past five or six o'clock for the evening performance. Prices for orchestra seats, or stalls as they are called over there, are very high, but about half the price is for taxes. A large proportion of the audience is in uniform, probably men on leave.

Although only automobiles for military or authorized purposes are used, there are many on the streets. Some of them are driven by gas which is carried in huge fabric bags which cover the roof of the car and are about four feet high when inflated. We were told that one filling of gas will drive the car about a hundred miles and costs about six dollars.

Many of the signs in London were of great interest to us. On one restaurant, there was a sign "Kidney Bacon-Toad", which caused us to wonder if the people of London were even eating toads. However, it was explained that "Toad" is the name for a sort of sausage roll.

Another restaurant had a sign, "This restaurant will stay open during raids as long as the walls are standing." Another sign on a badly wrecked building read, "You may think this is bad, but you should see our Berlin branch."

On the whole, we found the people of London to be cheerful and optimistic, so busy at the task of winning the war that they have little time for anything else. Everyone is anxious to help strangers, (and the city is full of them), so we found it surprisingly easy to make our way around.

Banks Help You Buy Bonds

Very few of us ever thought that we would live to see the day when Canadian banks would be anxious to get their clients' savings off their books and into other loans. But such is the case in Canada right now. Of course it is a war situation. There are no trade channels open other than war industries to absorb the capital savings of the people and no surplus goods and services to be bought with the savings. If Canadian people could only see it, the banks are really doing them a favor. Banks only pay  $1\frac{1}{2}\%$  interest on savings deposits. Victory Bonds yield 3%. You are doubling your money. Technically speaking, no person with savings should have to be canvassed by a Victory Loan salesman to encourage him to transfer his savings from bank deposits into Victory Bonds. In the final analysis if the government needs the money for the war effort it will get it anyway.

CLUNY

The Cluny Drug Store and Hall which have been vacant for quite a few years are being demolished. Mr. H. H. Forsythe has a gang of men pulling the place down and piling the lumber. The place was built, I believe, in 1919. Many a good time was had in the upstairs Hall and many a dollar made for charitable institutions. We hate to see it go, but such is the trend of the times, one pulling down, another building up.

The U. G. G. Elevator Co. is repairing and stuccoing their house which is going to be quite an improvement as well as making it much warmer.

Cluny Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, May 13 at the home of Mrs. Ronald Clark. There was a very good attendance of members and visitors. Plans were completed to entertain both our Constituency Governor, Mrs. George Thurston of Nightingale and the members of the Queenstown W. I. at our June meeting. Mrs. L. Raymond gave further highlights of the District Conference held in Calgary in March. Mrs. Duncan Clark gave a paper entitled "Odds and Ends Gathered Here and There." The entertainment committee presented a Nursery Rhyme contest, won by Mrs. Walter James and the birthday raffle was won by Miss Gillander. A very interesting demonstration on puff pastry was given by Miss Gillander after which the meeting adjourned and lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. Nelson, Mrs. R. Edwards and Mrs. R. Clark. The Cluny Branch of the Red Cross have moved their headquarters to the offices of the old Central Garage on the corner of main street and second street west where they will meet every Wednesday afternoon as usual for quilting, also to take out and return sewing, knitting etc.

Cluny has quite a squad of young soldiers training under Sgt. Ronald Clark and Sgt. H. S. Keir. They train twice a week, Monday going to Gleichen to take training with the Gleichen boys of the 22nd and on Thursday training in Cluny.

Misses Jean Fairbourn, Barbara Haymond and Doris Cunningham journeyed to Strathmore last Saturday to play in Miss V. Hyde's recital. We are very sorry to be losing the services of Miss Hyde as music teacher.

Mr. George Sneidermann, our genial postmaster has been fortunate to have both his son and daughter visiting their home at the same time. Bill, from Ottawa, where he is stationed with the Postal Corps and Opal, Mrs. H. Harrison from Vancouver, where her husband has been stationed for some time with the R. C. A. F., but who has gone East for a couple of months. Bill is on sick leave following an appendectomy.

WHAT CANADA HAS DONE

Mr. Taylor, Canadian Deputy at Washington for the Combined Production and Resources Board of Canada and the United States says in the Philadelphia Inquirer:

"Canada has built up and is maintaining an army, navy and air force aggregating 600,000 men and now being increased to 800,000. When one remembers that Canada is a nation of but 12,000,000—about one-thirteenth the population of the United States—it can be understood that in proportion to our size we have done as fine a job in this line as the United States.

"Canada supplies most of the arms and equipment for its forces and exports a large surplus of war goods to Great Britain and the other United Nations. It also exports raw materials and parts to the United States.

"Canada produces 95 per cent of all the nickel and 40 per cent of all the aluminum used by the United Nations.

"Canada supplies 200 pounds of food per annum for every man, woman and child in the United Kingdom. Last year Canada made an outright gift of $1,000,000,000 worth of food-stuffs, munitions and other supplies to Great Britain. It can be safely assumed that this year Canada will make similar arrangements to supply the surplus of Canadian production to Great Britain and other United Nations that cannot pay cash. Last Summer Canadian vessels were diverted from their regular work to help carry ore supplies on the Great Lakes, playing an important part in the record-breaking shipments of ore for the American steel mills.

"Canada is building corvettes for the United States Navy—and among things, the American designed M-4 tank; the Curtiss dive-bomber the PBV flying boats.

"Canada is operating the largest small arms plant and the second largest tank arsenal in the Western Hemisphere. It occupies third place among the United Nations in shipbuilding and has supplied most of the military transport motor vehicles used by the General Montgomery's British Eighth Army, the army which beat Rommel's African Corps.

"Canada has supplied Russia with $50,000,000 worth of tanks and another $50,000,000 of miscellaneous war goods Canadian-made small arms, artillery and ammunition are being sent to China. Much equipment made in our country is being used in the Southwestern Pacific theatre of war.

"Although Canada is eligible for lend-lease aid, she has paid cash for purchases from the United States out of her reserves and by the proceeds of her trade with this country.

Why has Canada made such a splendid contribution to the War Effort. The answer is simple—Canadians everywhere from coast to coast realizing the vital importance of keeping our armed forces and those of the Allies properly equipped, have responded generously to each Victory Loan.

LECTURER ON SOCIAL SUBJECTS

"Coming—Rev. Ben H. Spence of Toronto, Noted Lecturer on Social Subjects, has been secured as temporary Field Secretary of the Associated Temperance Forces of Alberta. He is expected to arrive in Calgary on May 21 when the Annual Conference of the "United Church of Canada" will be in session. He will give addresses in the leading centres of the Province.

Since Prime Minister King has urged the teaching of "Temperance" throughout Canada, a committee in Edmonton is planning to wait upon the Government of Alberta to urge that Scientific Temperance Instruction be given in our Provincial Schools, especially emphasizing the effects of alcohol upon the human body.

A one-day convention has been called under the auspices of the Associated Temperance Forces to convene on June 15th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Salvation Army Citadel, Edmonton. Mr. Ben Spence will be the chief speaker. Signed, R. E. Finlay, Chairman of Committee.

STRATHMORE AGAIN
OVER THE TOP

Again Strathmore has exceeded her objective. The quota was a large one, but the canvassers worked zealously, and the people repaided generously, as the result shows.

Our people realize fully, that these and the coming months are critical, and filled with tremendous consequences, and the tools for Victory are needed by the men, to enable them to carry on to success.

It was this, rather than the sound investment idea, which prompted their Bond buying.

IRRIGATION— VITAL
TOPIC

Next to the War Irrigation is the vital question No. 1, for the people of this part of the Province, not only for the farmers, but for all who gain their livelihood in this area. We therefore commend the practical and business-like method of approach and action of the Committee appointed and now acting, in behalf of the citizens of the district.

Through their discussion they have brought the matter to a head, at what seems like the eleventh hour.

They have a big job ahead and large responsibility.

They deserve and should have the interested cooperation of every practical and progressive citizen of the district, which stretches over quite a large area.

NIGHTINGALE

By M. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walls are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy born on May 11.

Mrs. E. M. Stoodley spent a day visiting her daughter Mrs. Riedon south of Strathmore.

The Thurston family are having a bout with flu and last reports show they are the victors. This dread disease seems especially vicious this spring and quite a number of people are unfortunate to have it.

Guests last Sunday at the Harriman home were Mrs. A. A. Downey and children of Calgary, Mrs. Beatrice Esterbrook of High River and Sgt. Jack Coldwell of Calgary.

Keep in mind the dance at the hall on May 28th, and another on June 11.

Sunday May 23, Evensong at 3 p.m. Please note change of time.

"I would like to meet you again," Roy murmured, as they glided through the waltz. "What about letting me have your phone number?"

"It's in the book," Gladys told him. Roy—"Good! What's your name?" Gladys—"You'll find that in the book also."

Some 300 factories have been set up in Britain by refugees from Nazi persecution, and they are employing about 30,000 British work-people in war production.

RURAL GLEICHEN

Tpr. David McBean is home from Camp Borden to assist his father with the spring farm work.

Betty Taylor, who is on the staff of the General hospital in Calgary spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor.

Word has been received by friends in Gleichen that Robert Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Black formerly of Gleichen, but now residing at Taber, has obtained his B. A. degree from the University of Alberta. Robert has another year to finish his law course, but will work in Calgary during the summer.

Mrs. R. Charlebois of Calgary is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. MacBean.

Gleichen Victory Loan drive went over the top the first of last week.

The ladies of the Gleichen Red Cross are starting another nursing class. This course will be chiefly emergency work.

Friends of Mrs. C. E. Messenger of Calgary are sorry to hear that she has undergone an operation. We wish her speedy recovery.

Several young people from Gleichen were in an accident near Cluny. Fortunately no one was hurt and the cars involved were not damaged beyond repair.

Miss Doris Cunningham took part in the recital given by Miss Hyde's pupils in Strathmore last week-end.

REMINISCENCING

The house on the corner of 3rd. St. and 3rd. Ave., for many years known as the Lambert house, in which L. A. C. Bill Weyers and his family are now residing bears an interesting story of local history, that we feel should not be overlooked.

This house was built by the present owner's uncle in the Fall of 1909. He was then book-keeper or accountant, with the old Riverside Lumber Co. in Strathmore. The house for years bore the Dutch name of "Hentveldt House". Following the big fire which is the "Before and After" date line of many Strathmore happenings, Mr. E. W. R. Lambert bought this house and with his family resided there until about 1929.

Mr. Weyers, the uncle, returned to Holland for a time but later returned to this continent, and is now representative of a Netherlands Investment Co. in the Eastern States where he now resides. The house has again passed to the Weyers family, L. A. C. Bill Weyers having recently purchased the property.

LETHBRIDGE EXPERIMENTAL STATION WEEKLY LETTERRAPE SEED PRODUCTION FOR OIL PURPOSES

Rape is an oil-producing crop which is attracting some attention throughout Canada. The oil produced from rape seed differs distinctly from any other type of oil, and is considered decidedly preferable by men in the navy for marine engines. In fact no other oil seems to be able to take its place.

Rape is quite commonly grown throughout Canada for pasture purposes and gives good satisfaction from that standpoint, particularly for hogs and sheep. The Dwarf Essex variety is the one generally chosen for that purpose. This is a biennial type.

SUNFLOWERS FOR OIL—

100,000 acres is the possible acreage to be seeded in 1943. Oil content varies from 25% to 35%. Date of seeding, May 5th. to 15th. Sunflower seedlings are frost hardy.

Rows need to be 36 inches to 42 inches apart and summerfallow land, clear of weed should be used. Seeding is done with the ordinary drill as thinly as possible or to have plants 6 to 12 inches apart. Mennonite is the popular and earliest variety, it goes to seed in the shortest time.

If rows are seeded the correct width to suit the ordinary duckfoot cultivator, this implement can be used to do the cultivating necessary to keep down weeds.

The Southern and Eastern parts of Alberta have the best chance of getting sunflowers to ripen seed, to be harvested with combines.

Small combines are favored for taking off the seed with reels reinforced to stand pulling down the stiff stems and heavy heads. Some canvas feed adjustments are needed to take the heads to the cylinder, and the cylinder speed needs to be  $\frac{1}{2}$  that used to thresh cereals.

Yields are known from 400 to 1300 pounds per acre. 900 pounds is a good average crop. 5c a pounds has been the price suggested for this crop on the market.

B. J. Whitbread
District Agriculturalist.Dr. Carpenter, Supt. of Technical Education Alberta
EXPECTED IN STRATHMORE JUNE 2nd.

"Shop work and Home Economics", will be the lively topic of an address to be given by Dr. Carpenter, Superintendent of Technical Education in Alberta, when he speaks here under the auspices of the Home and School Association. The Association believe Dr. Carpenter will command a much larger audience in Strathmore than the membership of this new organization. Accordingly an open invitation is given to all interested in the town and throughout the district, to all parents, all teachers, to everyone.

Dr. Carpenter is expected on June 2, and the meeting will be held in the basement of the United Church, commencing at 8:15 p.m.

1943 WHEAT ACREAGE REDUCTION

Payments of $2.00 per acre may be made for decrease in wheat acreage on any farm in 1943 below that of 1940. Such payments will be calculated on the wheat decrease. Reference to 80 per cent of total cultivated acreage and to the year 1939 as to a base in some cases, remains in the Act.

There will be no preliminary application; any farmer who did not apply in 1941 or 1942 and intends to claim in 1943 must only give notice of his intention to the Municipality not later than May 31st. An early cut off date will be set for filing Statements of Claim, possibly immediately after seeding, in June. Cut off date for landlord claims is June 30th.

No payments will be made on abandoned land.

Vern—Do you love me darling?

Lois—You know I do Harry.

Vern—Harry? My name's Vern, Lois—Of course— I keep thinking today is Saturday.

A Scotsman rang up a doctor in a state of great agitation "Come at once he cried, "my baby has swallowed a dime!"

"How old is it?" asked the doctor. "1894."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is II Corinthians 3:18.
One of the Scriptural citations is "and their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it" (Matthew 9:30). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "Divine Truth must be known by its effects on the body as well as on the mind, before the Science of being can be demonstrated. Hence its embodiment the incarnate Jesus,—that lifelink forming the connection through which the real reaches the unreal.
Soul rebukes sense, and Truth destroys error" (p. 350).

Farmers Will Profit

Local committees of farmers have been set up nearly all over the prairie provinces to work out ways and means of more efficient farm production with less labor and equipment. They are asked to produce less wheat and more of nearly everything else. We hope these committees will be permanent and not just for "the duration." Mixed farming requires special knowledge, skill and experience. The committees can serve as very useful links between agricultural scientists and other farmers and, also, encourage the exchange of good ideas between farmers. This need not mean less wheat; but will enable us to produce as much on fewer acres.

In a recent issue of an Australian farm journal,* the following editorial comment is made:

"The war is doing disturbing things to farming. . . Many, of course, are temporary ex-pedients, not to be tolerated any longer than is necessary; others, it must be admitted, represent long overdue advances in the industry."

"Most notable of these is the formation of district agricultural committees, in which must be recognized not merely a contrivance to tide farming through a crisis, but machinery ideally suited to its needs in time of peace."

These views apply with equal force to Western Canada. Our own committees, with the assistance of professional agriculturists, should, we think, play a major role in:
1. Zoning agricultural production in relation to soil, climate and probable markets.

2. Long-term soil conservation measures.

BENEFITS FOR RETURNED MEN

Men are returning from overseas service now and they will be till the end of the war, when we hope there will be many released.

Men with war wounds, or with troubles developed on, or aggravated by war services, will have hospital and medical care to rehabilitate them physically as far as is humanly possible. Where there are permanent disabilities, permanent pensions will be paid. Where retraining, or vocational training, is desired, these courses will be available, and benefits will be given for twelve to fifteen months after the training is complete, or until positions are obtained. The benefits will be $9.00 per week for single men and $13.00 per week for married men. Discussions are now going on to supplement this.

The period may be extended to four years in cases of interrupted education. For these cases college fees will be paid in addition to the cash benefits.

Out of 370,000 men questioned, 58,000 wish to continue University Education. The aim is to follow the process right to the end of the line where the man is ready for a position. In all government posts, returned men have a preference as in the past. Private employers are forced by law to reinstate employees. The Unemployment Insurance fees are now being paid by the Government.

Great Britain and U. S. A. are now following Canada's lead in this respect as they have in the past been far behind Canada as regards returned soldier care.

The plans in Canada call for full employment of all Canadians, Social Security, and an increased standard of living after the war. Studies made so far indicate that this can be done if 20% of the National Income is annually invested in Capital expenditure. Private enterprise may need to borrow to undertake public works.

Better Old Age Pensions, and better Unemployment Insurance rates will be needed.

Studies are being made of post-war problems, and plans made so that if peace comes suddenly there will be no period of depression and unemployment.

It may be a big problem, as Canadian plants have been tooled up for war work to a much greater extent than in the last war. Also profits have been much smaller, so that reserves are not being built up for changing the output from war to civilian products. If any manufacturer is making profits and not preparing for post-war changes, he is not keeping faith.

Many of the one million war workers and the 700,000 fighting men and women will return to civilian positions, continue their education, go back to their homes, or retire. Demobilization will be gradual, so none need be released till a position is waiting. On account of the money now being invested in war loans and stamps, there should be more money available. There will thus be a great demand for such things as washing machines, radios, autos, houses and if the war lasts long, clothing etc.

The 390,000 people in Europe and 400,000,000 in China will need food. Canada will need to contribute a share of this.

Nutritional experts are finding that much more of certain foods is required for the health of the Canadian people.

Committees at Ottawa are studying these problems from all angles, not detracting from the war effort, but preparing for the near and distant future, so that never again will there be a repetition of the want and hardship of the last decade.

MY FIRST TRIP ON THE ALCAN HIGHWAY

Started out from Dawson Creek With five and a quarter ton. When I saw the road so smooth and wide

Says I, "Why this is fun."

So I settled back as I purled along And lighted up a pill, But my air of ease soon passed away When I struck Peace River Hill.

Curve, after curve, mile after mile, Till I thought my brake would burn; Then across a shaky one-way bridge And up the "hairpin" turn.

Then up and on for ten good miles, And there to make the jog Was Fort St. John with its high-crowned street— It was like driving on a log.

Then there is thirty miles of as fine a road As you'll ever wish to see, And on through bush and curves and hills, Till I struck Mile 83.

There up sprung a hill like the side of a barn, And I stared with bated breath; When dismembered trucks in a jumbled heap Bespoke a horrible death.

I clawed for gears with feverish haste, But the wheels began to spin As I slammed on the brakes and began to slide— I pictured an awful end.

At last with luck I got her stopped; I don't know how just yet; And I started again with utmost care, My forehead beaded with sweat.

I rolled along till I reached the top At about a "hundred and two" As I eased her down with squealing brakes, It thrilled me through and through.

As I reached the top I shivered and shook, My sweat turned to a chill, "If I ever make another trip I mustn't forget that hill."

The next was the wide famed Sikan Hill— About seven miles all down grade An orange sign on te last steep lap This ominous warning gave:

"Dangerous hill, use low gear— Beware of slides and ice." The chills chased up and down my spine Like a pair of frolicking dice.

My heart would leap at every slide As she struck the icy spots; The exhaust was popping out behind Like the crack of rifle shots.

With ice-cold motor and red-hot brakes I rolled up to the pump; My right leg ached and trembled, My heart went thumpety-thump.

The gears they growled and the motor barked As I steadily gave her the gun; Up the heavy grade on the other side And on towards the sun.

At the top of one hundred and forty-three, Was a scene, a joy to behold— The trees below like flowers And the mountains fringed with gold.

But my gaze of wonder turned to awe As I started down the hill; For there lay the battered and twisted form

LIVING WAS NOT SO HECTIC IN "THEM THAR DAYS"

An Ambitious Young Fellow

A young fellow out in Hollywood named Lionel Barrymore (who claims to have passed a 65th birthday Thursday) told reporters on that occasion: "I want to fly one of those new flivver planes they'll have after the war, and I'd like to write some really good music and make a really good etching."

And this is no mere bravado or display of inordinate ambition either, on the part of this "young squirt," as "Dr. Gillespie" so often calls his assistants. For he has become quite proficient, both as etcher and musician during his fifty years on the stage—Oops Did we say fifty? Well, pshaw, what's a mere fifty years' background to a young fellow in the prime of his career. Remember, sir, what Longfellow wrote for the 50th anniversary of his class at college:

Cato learned Greek at eighty; Sophocles wrote his grand Oedipus, and Simonides bore off the prize of verse from his competers, When each had numbered more than fourscore years, And Theophrastus, at fourscore and ten,

Had but begun his Characters of Men. Old time is a liar, as Holmes said young Mr. Barrymore. And, as long as you stick by your own wise decision not to look back over the past, since you're "beginning a new fifty"—there is no reason, sir, why you should not succeed in your ambition.

There's something very lovely about it. Just going from her to there—with a song.

Of a tanker, cold and still.

Two curves and a hill, two hills and a curve, Till I struck "one fifty-one." At the sight of its 'untempered twists and turns My heart sank with the sun.

I'd like to tell you all of it, But space would not permit; But a ways this side of Nelson I was scared, I must admit.

I'd slipped her into standard low, And started up a rise, When over the top a great white light Was glaring in my eyes.

I blinked my lights and blinked them again, And gave him lots of space; Then I saw 'twas only the playful moon Staring me in the face.

At the Army camp at "Zero," Where they stop us for inspection, The colored boys are mighty nice In spite of their complexion.

"You-all got a pass—who you-all for? I showed him the printed slip. "Civilian transport," I sang out, "Holkey boy—let 'er rip."

When I told how this cursed road Had got me all upset, The black boy grinned and rolled his eyes: "Man, you ain't seen nothin' yet."

I swapped him a man-sized snort of rye For a package of cigarettes; Another eight miles to Smiths Was as far as I wanted to get.

I slept a while and dumped my load— Made Dawson Creek that night Swore I'd never pass St. John again Without a hell of a fight.

So I pestered Jim with my tale of woe And I thought his heart was melting; Till he smiled and said—"Here's a load of gas For two hundred and ten"—past Nelson.

WHEAT ACREAGE REDUCTION

Farmers of the Prairie Provinces, including the Peace River and Creston areas of British Columbia, who desire to divert wheat acreage to the production of any other crops or to summerfallow in 1943, may claim payment for doing so.

Payment of $2.00 may be made for each acre by which the wheat seeded on any farm in 1943 is below that seeded on such farm in 1940. If there was no wheat on a farm in 1940 but there was wheat in 1939, the 1939 acreages may be used instead of those of 1940. Any crops or summerfallow may be substituted for wheat, but payment will not be made on abandoned lands.

Payment on any farm is limited to an acreage not greater than 80% of the total cultivated acreage of such farm.

To obtain payment farmers must make a sworn statement of claim immediately seeding is completed. They should plan to do so NOT LATER THAN JUNE 30th.

Any farmer who did not apply for Wheat Acreage Reduction payment in either 1941 or 1942 and intends to do so in 1943 must notify his municipality of his intention before May 31, and then make his claim after seeding. Forms are available in the offices of the municipalities or direct from offices of the Wheat Acreage Reduction Administration in Winnipeg, Regina and Edmonton. Statements of claim may be submitted to Municipal Offices or to Offices especially arranged to receive them in localities not served by municipalities. Delay in making claims should be avoided; they may be filed immediately seeding is completed. Persons having interests in farms as landlords may submit applications at once.
